

Strengthening Sexual Assault Prosecutions

April 23-25, 2025
Helena, MT

Click here to register now!

Highlighting the U.S. DOJ 2024 framework for strengthening Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence prosecution, the training will include building rapport with victims; corroborating victim statements; using the law and evidentiary rules strategically and effectively; lessening victim re-traumatization; sustaining a productive, healthy, and committed workforce; discussion/consultation on challenging cases; hands-on skills practice; and networking with other Montana prosecutors.

Speakers include:

Kathleen Campbell, Bureau Chief, Trial Division, Maricopa County Attorney's Office, Arizona
Fara Gold, Attorney Advisory, U.S. DOJ Office on Violence Against Women

NO REGISTRATION FEE

Hosted by the Montana Department of Justice
Office of Victim Services Sexual Assault Response Network (SARN) Program and Prosecution Services Bureau

Questions? Contact Hope Stockwell, SARN Coordinator, at dojsarn@mt.gov or 406-444-9869.

Registration is first-come, first-served and limited to 50 persons.
Lodging information and additional materials will be sent after you register.

