

SAVE THE DATE

Montana Department of Justice Opioid Overdose Prevention Summit

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen will host the Montana Department of Justice Opioid Overdose Prevention Summit in Billings on Tuesday, August 12.

Save the date if you are interested in joining law enforcement, prosecutors, advocates, educators, legislators, family members of those who have lost a loved one to opioid overdose, and other officials to work towards solutions as we combat the opioid overdose epidemic in Montana.

The Summit will be a day-long event consisting of presentations and panels to hear from experts and dialogue with legislators and other elected officials. We have a special guest, Rocky Herron, who will join us to discuss how to reach and educate students in the classroom. And special guest, Andrea Thomas, who founded Voices for Awareness to raise awareness and combat the issue after she lost her daughter to fentanyl poisoning.

More details to follow, but MARK YOUR CALENDARS. Please reach out to Emilee Cantrell at emilee.cantrell@mt.gov or 406-437-8352 or Kelly Mougeot at kmougeot@mt.gov with any questions. Space will be limited.