Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<Name 1>>:

We are contacting you regarding an incident involving the theft of laptop that may have contained some confidential information as a vendor for The Claremont Colleges.

What Happened?

On November 15, 2016, several items, including a password-protected laptop, were stolen from a Claremont University Consortium employee's locked vehicle. The theft was discovered the same day and the employee promptly notified the College and the Berkeley Police Department. We have been working with law enforcement but, to date, they have been unable to locate the suspects or the stolen items.

What information was involved?

Our investigation has confirmed that the stolen laptop may have contained information regarding your 1099 tax form, including your name, address, date of birth, and Social Security number.

What we are doing.

We wanted to let you know this happened and assure you we take it very seriously. To prevent something like this from happening in the future, we are re-enforcing education and training for our employees regarding the importance of handling information securely.

What you can do.

We have no reason to believe that the items were stolen for the information they contained or that the information has been misused in anyway. As a precaution, we are offering a free one-year membership of Experian's® ProtectMyID® Alert. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection support focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. For instructions on how to activate your complimentary one-year membership, please see the "Activate ProtectMyID Now in Three Easy Steps" document enclosed with this letter.

For More Information

We deeply regret any inconvenience this incident may cause you. If you have any questions, please call (844) 893-3069, Monday through Friday from 6:00 AM to 6:00 PM Pacific Standard Time.

Sincerely,

Lori A. Husein
Vice President for Business and Administration/Treasurer

Information about Identity Theft Protection

We recommend that you regularly review statements from your accounts and periodically obtain your credit report from one or more of the national credit reporting companies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report online at www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by mailing an Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.annualcreditreport.com) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281. You may also purchase a copy of your credit report by contacting one or more of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below.

Equifax, P.O. Box 740241, Atlanta, Georgia 30374-0241, 1-800-685-1111, www.equifax.com

Experian, P.O. Box 9532, Allen, TX 75013, 1-888-397-3742, www.experian.com

TransUnion, P.O. Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, 1-877-322-8228, www.transunion.com

You should remain vigilant with respect to reviewing your account statements and credit reports, and you should promptly report any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to us and to the proper law enforcement authorities, including local law enforcement, your state's attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You may contact the FTC or your state's regulatory authority to obtain additional information about avoiding and protection against identity theft: Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft.

Fraud Alerts: There are also two types of fraud alerts that you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud: an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for at least 90 days. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by contacting any of the three national credit reporting agencies at the toll-free numbers listed below:

Equifax
877-478-7625

Experian
888-397-3742

TransUnion
800-680-7289

Credit Freezes: You may have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. In addition, you may incur fees to place, lift and/or remove a credit freeze. Credit freeze laws vary from state to state. The cost of placing, temporarily lifting, and removing a credit freeze also varies by state, generally $5 to $20 per action at each credit reporting company. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Since the instructions for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information.
