123 ANY STREET

ANYTOWN, ST 12345-6789

NOTICE OF [VARIABLE TEXT 1]

Dear Sample A. Sample:

Freedom Debt Relief, LLC (“Freedom Debt Relief”) is writing to notify you of an incident that may have impacted the privacy of some of your information. We are providing you with information about the incident, our response, and resources we are making available to you to help protect your information should you wish to do so.

What Happened? On May 9, 2023, Freedom Debt Relief was notified of an issue wherein documents containing sensitive information related to certain clients were inadvertently made accessible to other clients on Freedom Debt Relief’s client dashboards. Upon becoming aware of the issue, Freedom Debt Relief immediately launched an investigation into the nature and scope of the incident. The investigation determined that beginning on October 27, 2022, after our client dashboard system initiated a new authorization process to display client documents, certain clients were capable of accessing historical documents that contained sensitive information related to other clients. In response, we promptly took steps to revoke this access, correct the authorization process and review all documents that were inadvertently made accessible to clients in order to identify what information was contained within the documents and to whom the information relates. On June 28, 2023, we completed our review and confirmed that information related to you may have been impacted by this event.

What Information Was Involved? Our review determined that your name, Social Security number, and creditor account number may have been impacted by this event. We have no evidence of any actual or attempted misuse of your information resulting from this event but are notifying you out of an abundance of caution.

What Are We Doing? The confidentiality, privacy, and security of information is among Freedom Debt Relief’s highest priorities. We have strict security measures in place to protect information in our care. Since being notified of this issue, we corrected the authorization process within our client dashboard system and put additional measures in place to further protect the security of information in our possession.

Additionally, we are offering you access to complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services for 12 months through Experian. The deadline to enroll in these services is October 31, 2023. Should you wish to do so, you will need to enroll yourself as we are not able to do so on your behalf. You can find instructions on how to enroll in these services in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information.

What Can You Do? We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. You may also review the information contained in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information. There you will also find more information on the complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services we are making available to you.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001; 202-727-3400; and oag.dc.gov. Freedom Debt Relief is located at 1875 S. Grant Street, Suite 300, San Mateo, CA 94402.

For Maryland residents, the Maryland Attorney General may be contacted at: 200 St. Paul Place, 16th Floor, Baltimore, MD 21202; 1-410-576-6300 or 1-888-743-0023; and <https://www.marylandattorneygeneral.gov/>. Freedom Debt Relief is located at 1875 S. Grant Street, Suite 300, San Mateo, CA 94402.

For New Mexico residents, consumers have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in their credit file has been used against them, the right to know what is in their credit file, the right to ask for their credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to consumers' files is limited; consumers must give consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; consumers may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance based on information in their credit report; and consumers may seek damages from violators. Consumers may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage consumers to review their rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504_cfpb_summary_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

For New York residents, the New York Attorney General may be contacted at: Office of the Attorney General, The Capitol, Albany, NY 12224-0341; 1-800-771-7755; or <https://ag.ny.gov>. Freedom Debt Relief is located at 1875 S. Grant Street, Suite 300, San Mateo, CA 94402.

For North Carolina residents, the North Carolina Attorney General may be contacted at: 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001; 1-877-566-7226 or 1-919-716-6000; and www.ncdoj.gov. Freedom Debt Relief is located at 1875 S. Grant Street, Suite 300, San Mateo, CA 94402.
