NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear <<Name 1>> <<Name 2>>:

The International Center of Photography (“ICP”) is writing to inform you of a recent event that may impact the privacy of some of your information. While we have no indication of any identity theft or fraud occurring as a result of this incident, we are providing you information about the event, our response, and steps you may take to better protect against the possibility of identity theft and fraud, should you feel it is necessary to do so.

What Happened? On February 16, 2023, ICP became aware of suspicious activity involving our computer network. We launched an investigation into the nature and scope of the incident with the assistance of industry-leading cybersecurity specialists. Through the investigation, we learned that an unauthorized individual accessed our network and that files containing your information may have been viewed and/or taken by the unauthorized individual.

With third-party support, we then conducted a comprehensive review of the impacted files in order to determine what information was affected and to whom the information related. Upon completion of the third-party review, we then conducted a manual review of our records internally to confirm the identities of individuals potentially affected by this event and their contact information to provide notifications. On or around December 15, 2023, we completed our review.

What Information Was Involved? The investigation determined that the following types of information related to you could potentially be involved: name, physical address, email address, phone number, date of birth, Government IDs, Passport Numbers, US Visa Numbers, Bank Account Numbers, Expired Credit Card Numbers, Gender, Race/Ethnicity, and social security number.

What We Are Doing. Upon discovering this incident, we moved quickly to investigate and respond, assess the security of relevant ICP systems, and identify any impacted data. As part of our ongoing commitment to the security of information, we are evaluating opportunities to improve security and to better prevent future events of this kind.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, and to review your account statements, explanation of benefits forms, and credit reports for suspicious activity. You may also review the information contained in the attached Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Personal Information.

For More Information. We understand that you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this letter. Should you have any questions, you may contact us at ###-###-###, which can be reached Monday through Friday from X:00 a.m. to X:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

Sincerely,

DRAFT

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO HELP PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
