Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>:

We are writing to provide you (or your parent, guardian or guarantor) with information about a recent criminal cybersecurity attack involving your personal information. The purpose of this notice is to help you understand what information may have been involved in the cybersecurity attack and to provide you with information about the steps you can take to protect your privacy, including the enrollment in two years of free credit monitoring and identity theft protection services. Please take the time to carefully read the sections below entitled “What You Can Do” and “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information.”

Who is MD Now Urgent Care? MD Now Urgent Care (“MD Now”) operates urgent care clinics in Florida, and our records indicate that you received care at one or more of those clinics. For more information about MD Now or the location of our clinics, please visit <https://www.mymdnow.com/>. You may also call the toll-free number below for more information.

What Happened? On May 20, 2024, MD Now discovered a criminal cybersecurity attack on one of its IT systems and immediately retained experts to investigate the attack. The investigation determined that an unknown and unauthorized criminal accessed the system in early May and removed certain documents, including discharge and prescription forms provided to patients who visited MD Now clinics before August 2023. MD Now reported the attack to law enforcement authorities.

What Information is Involved? The investigation allowed us to determine that the following of your information was accessed during the attack: name, <<ELEMENTS_FOUND>>.

What is MD Now Doing? MD Now immediately retained forensic, threat-intelligence and other IT experts and advisors, who worked to investigate and to contain the attack, including by implementing additional security measures. MD Now is not aware of any of the information accessed during the attack being used by the criminal responsible for the attack or being made available to others on the internet or dark web. Despite that and to help alleviate any concerns you may have, MD Now is offering you free credit monitoring and identity protection services provided by IDX for a period of two years. The services include credit monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy and identity restoration, in the event that you are a victim of identity theft, and dark web monitoring to identify any of your information that is made available through illegal online forums. To activate the services, please follow the instructions included in the attached “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information.”

What You Can Do. You should continue to be vigilant about identity theft and fraud – please review your account and financial statements and monitor available credit reports for unauthorized or suspicious activity. You should also be careful when responding to any text, email, telephone or other requests for your personal or sensitive information. MD Now will never request your personal or sensitive information by text, email or telephone. Finally, you should never open links or attachments sent from unknown or suspicious sources. Additional information is provided in the attached “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information.”

Who You Can Call. For further information, please call 1-888-737-9707, Monday to Friday from 9 am – 9 pm Eastern Time.

Sincerely,

MD Now

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information

Enroll in IDX Credit Monitoring and Identity Protection Services

Go to <https://response.idx.us/mdnow> and follow the instructions to enroll in the identity protection services being provided by IDX. Your personal Enrollment Code is provided at the top of this letter. Please note the deadline to enroll is November 9, 2024.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file with the credit reporting bureau. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

If you discover any suspicious items on your credit reports or from the fraud alert and have enrolled in IDX identity protection services, notify them immediately by calling or by logging into the IDX website and filing a request for help.

If you file a request for help or report suspicious activity, you will be contacted by a member of the IDX ID Care Team who will help you determine the cause of the suspicious items. In the event that you fall victim to identity theft as a consequence of this incident, you will be assigned an ID Care Specialist who will work on your behalf to identify, stop and reverse the damage quickly.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, free of charge, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency filed by you concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud (this letter alone does not suggest that you are a victim of or at risk of identity theft or fraud). Please note that in order for you to file a police report for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
