<<b2b_text_1(NOTICE OF [SECURITY INCIDENT] / [DATA BREACH])>>

Dear <<first_name>> <<last_name>>:

Loge Holdings LLC (“Loge”) writes to inform you of an incident that may affect some of your information. This letter provides you with details about the incident, our response, and resources available to you to help protect your information from possible misuse, should you determine it is appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On December 15, 2023, Loge detected irregular activity within our email environment. In response, we immediately took steps to contain the incident and launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the activity. Our investigation determined that between November 27, 2023, and December 15, 2023, an unknown, unauthorized actor gained access to certain email accounts and potentially accessed and/or acquired certain emails, attachments, or items stored in those accounts.

Following this determination, Loge undertook a thorough review of the relevant data to identify individuals with personal information in emails, attachments, or items. The review process recently concluded.

What Information Was Involved? The information identified in the reviewed data included your name and the following: <<b2b_text_2(data elements)>>. Loge is not aware of any actual or attempted misuse of your information in connection with this incident.

What We Are Doing. Loge takes this incident and information security very seriously. As part of our ongoing commitment to information security, we are reviewing our policies and procedures and implementing additional security measures to further protect against similar incidents going forward. ### Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer's name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. date of birth;

4. addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. a legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.); and
7. a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
