Re: Notice of Security Incident

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>,

Eurasia Group is writing to inform you of an event that may impact the privacy of some of your personal information. While we are unaware of any attempted or actual misuse of your information, we are providing you with information about the event, our response, and steps you may take to protect against any misuse of your information, should you feel it is necessary to do so.

What Happened? Eurasia Group learned of potentially suspicious activity within its email systems. Eurasia Group immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party computer forensic specialists, to determine the nature and scope of the event. Through this investigation, Eurasia Group determined it was the target of unauthorized access through a sophisticated intrusion. Due to the sophistication of this intrusion, Eurasia Group continued to experience additional intrusions believed to have been perpetrated by the same group. Throughout that time, Eurasia Group worked with its third-party computer forensic specialists to identify the potential access and to secure its systems. Eurasia Group also undertook a lengthy and labor-intensive process to identify sensitive information that may have been contained within the email accounts impacted by this event, and to identify the individuals whose information may have been impacted. Eurasia Group then worked to identify contact information for the impacted individuals. We are notifying you because that investigation recently determined certain information related to you may have been subject to unauthorized access.

What Information Was Involved? The information contained in the accessible email accounts includes your name, <<extra 2>>. We have no evidence your information was subject to actual or attempted misuse and doing so did not seem to be the intention of the unauthorized actors.

What We Are Doing. Eurasia Group takes this incident and the security of your personal information seriously. Upon discovery, we immediately launched an investigation and took steps to secure our systems. We are reviewing our policies, procedures, and processes related to storage of and access to personal information.

As an added precaution, Eurasia Group is providing you with access to <<12/24 months>> of credit monitoring and identity protection services through IDX. A description of services and instructions on how to enroll can be found within the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information. Please note that you must complete the enrollment process yourself, as we are not permitted to enroll you in these services on your behalf.

What You Can Do. You can review the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information to learn helpful tips on steps you can take to protect against possible misuse should you feel it appropriate to do so. We also encourage you to review your account statements and report all suspicious activity to the institution that issued the record immediately.

For More Information. We understand that you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this letter. If you have additional questions, you can call our dedicated call center at 1-800-939-4170 Monday through Friday from 9 am – 9 pm Eastern Time.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience or concern this incident has caused.

Sincerely,

3. Telephone. Contact IDX at 1-800-939-4170 to gain additional information about this event and speak with knowledgeable representatives about the appropriate steps to take to protect your credit identity.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
