Re: Notification of Data Breach / Cybersecurity Incident

Dear <<Name 1>>:

Emmi Roth USA, Inc. (“Emmi Roth” or “we”) understands the importance of cybersecurity and protecting your sensitive personal data. Unfortunately, the purpose of this letter is to inform you that Emmi Roth was the victim of a cyberattack and certain sensitive personal data within our custody was compromised during the incident. However, there is no indication that your sensitive personal data has been misused or will be misused in the future. Yet, out of an abundance of caution, Emmi Roth is providing you and your family members with complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft protection services, and we encourage you to enroll in these services.

In addition, we have proactively notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and we are fully cooperating in their investigation and hope that they can identify and prosecute those responsible for this incident.

What Happened

On August 10, 2023, we discovered that a third party gained unauthorized access to our information technology environment. In response, we immediately deployed security measures to contain and mitigate this threat, and we retained an external incident response team to accelerate our recovery efforts. Because of the security controls we implemented prior to this incident, we were able to contain the threat within a few hours and return to a normal state of business within just a few days. Yet, through our investigation, we discovered that the perpetrator of the attack accessed Emmi Roth files and records, including sensitive personal data therein.

What Information Was Involved

This cybersecurity incident resulted in an unauthorized third party obtaining access to Emmi Roth’s personnel and HR-related files, which contained sensitive personal data. Emmi Roth maintains this sensitive personal data to provide benefit programs (e.g., health and wellness programs, retirement plans), to assess worker eligibility, and for tax filing and similar business purposes. Accordingly, the types of sensitive personal data on our employees that were compromised in this cybersecurity incident included each employee’s name and social security number. In the event you provided Emmi Roth with your driver’s license number, passport number, or a similar government-provided identifier, or health insurance and healthcare related data, this sensitive personal data could have also been compromised during this incident.

In the event that you enrolled a family member (e.g., dependent, beneficiary) in an Emmi Roth benefit program, their sensitive personal data (e.g., social security numbers) may have also been compromised. Unfortunately, we have not been able to identify - with full certainty - whether any of your family members were impacted by this incident. Accordingly, out of an abundance of caution, we are going to offer you and your immediate family members complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft protection services.

Fortunately, our ADP and HR Suite systems (and the sensitive personal data therein) have not been compromised or impacted by this incident. In addition, our employees' biometric data and all healthcare data collected and retained by our third-party healthcare providers have not been compromised or impacted by this incident.

What We Are Doing

We take this event and the security of information in our care seriously and have taken action to remediate this cybersecurity incident and help prevent future occurrences. Given the comprehensive information security program that Emmi Roth had established prior to this incident, we were able to return to a normal state of operations in a timely manner. We have retained independent third-party IT security consultants to analyze the incident, including our information security tools and the status of our data security hygiene. As noted above, we proactively notified the FBI of this incident, and we are fully cooperating with their investigation. We also filed incident reports with certain state regulatory authorities on the nature and scope of this incident.

Credit Monitoring Services

To help address any concerns you may have, Emmi Roth will provide you, and your immediate family members, with complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft protection services for 24 months offered through Equifax. The enclosed sheet provides instructions for enrollment in these Equifax Complete™ Premier and Equifax Child Monitoring services.

What You Can Do

Because of the measures and steps that Emmi Roth took following this incident, there is no indication that your sensitive personal data has been misused or will be misused in the future. However, there are several steps that you can take to better protect yourself and your personal data more generally. See the attachment for additional information with respect to certain security services that may be available to you.

Point of Contact

We have established a dedicated call center to answer questions you may have about this incident, which you can reach at 844-709-1704, Monday – Friday, 9:00 am to 9:00 pm (Eastern Standard Time). We have also established a dedicated website about this incident that includes a Frequently Asked Question (FAQ) section, and it is available at <https://www.emmiroth.com/datasecuritynotice/>.

* * * * *

We deeply regret that this cybersecurity incident occurred. From the start, we moved quickly to contain the incident and conducted a thorough investigation with the assistance of leading security experts. We are working hard to ensure that individuals impacted by this incident have answers to questions about their personal data. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Tim Omer
President & Managing Director

You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Note: The delivery of this notice has not been delayed as a result of a law enforcement investigation.

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for at least 90 days. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by contacting any of the three national credit reporting agencies.

Credit Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a personal identification number (“PIN”) that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a security freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a security freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com.
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com.
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com.

To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information: (i) Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.), (ii) Social Security number, (iii) Date of birth, (iv) If you have moved in the past five years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years, (v) Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill, (vi) A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.), (vii) If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

The credit reporting agencies have one business day after receiving your request by toll-free telephone or secure electronic means, or three business days after receiving your request by mail, to place a security freeze on your credit report. The credit bureaus must also send written confirmation to you within five business days and provide you with a unique personal identification number ("PIN") or password or both that can be used by you to authorize the removal or lifting of the security freeze.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, or to lift a security freeze for a specified period of time, you must submit a request through a toll-free telephone number, a secure electronic means maintained by a credit reporting agency, or by sending a written request via regular, certified, or overnight mail to the credit reporting agencies and include proper identification (name, address, and Social Security number) and the PIN or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze as well as the identity of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have one business day after receiving your request by toll-free telephone or secure electronic means, or three business days after receiving your request by mail, to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

To remove the security freeze, you must submit a request through a toll-free telephone number, a secure electronic means maintained by a credit reporting agency, or by sending a written request via regular, certified, or overnight mail to each of the three credit bureaus and include proper identification (name, address, and Social Security number) and the PIN or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze. The credit bureaus have one business day after receiving your request by toll-free telephone or secure electronic means, or three business days after receiving your request by mail, to remove the security freeze.

Fair Credit Reporting Act: You also have rights under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (the "FCRA"), which promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. The Federal Trade Commission has published a list of the primary rights created by the FCRA, and the article is available at (<https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/sites/default/files/articles/pdf/pdf-0096-fair-credit-reporting-act.pdf>), and that article refers individuals seeking more information to visit www.ftc.gov/credit. The Federal Trade Commission's list of FCRA rights includes the following:

- You have the right to receive a copy of your credit report. The copy of your report must contain all the information in your file at the time of your request.
- Each of the nationwide credit reporting companies – Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion – is required to provide you with a free copy of your credit report, at your request, once every 12 months. You are also entitled to a free report if a company takes adverse action against you, like denying your application for credit, insurance, or employment, and you ask for your report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. The notice will give you the name, address, and phone number of the credit reporting company. You are also entitled to one free report a year if you are unemployed and plan to look for a job within 60 days, if you are on welfare, or if your report is inaccurate because of fraud, including identity theft.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information.
- Access to your file is limited. You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you receive based on information in your credit report.
- You may seek damages from violators.
- Identity-theft victims and active-duty military personnel have additional rights.

<sup>1</sup>The credit scores provided are based on the VantageScore® 3.0 model. For three-bureau VantageScore credit scores, data from Equifax®, Experian®, and TransUnion® are used respectively. Any one-bureau VantageScore uses Equifax data. Third parties use many different types of credit scores and are likely to use a different type of credit score to assess your creditworthiness. <sup>2</sup>Credit monitoring from Experian and TransUnion will take several days to begin. <sup>3</sup>WebScan searches for your Social Security Number, up to 5 passport numbers, up to 6 bank account numbers, up to 6 credit/debit card numbers, up to 6 email addresses, and up to 10 medical ID numbers. WebScan searches thousands of Internet sites where consumers’ personal information is suspected of being bought and sold, and regularly adds new sites to the list of those it searches. However, the Internet addresses of these suspected Internet trading sites are not published and frequently change, so there is no guarantee that we are able to locate and search every possible Internet site where consumers’ personal information is at risk of being traded. <sup>4</sup>The Automatic Fraud Alert feature is made available to consumers by Equifax Information Services LLC and fulfilled on its behalf by Equifax Consumer Services LLC. <sup>5</sup>Locking your Equifax credit report will prevent access to it by certain third parties. Locking your Equifax credit report will not prevent access to your credit report at any other credit reporting agency. Entities that may still have access to your Equifax credit report include: companies like Equifax Global Consumer Solutions, which provide you with access to your credit report or credit score, or monitor your credit report as part of a subscription or similar service; companies that provide you with a copy of your credit report or credit score, upon your request; federal, state and local government agencies and courts in certain circumstances; companies using the information in connection with the underwriting of insurance, or for employment, tenant or background screening purposes; companies that have a current account or relationship with you, and collection agencies acting on behalf of those whom you owe; companies that authenticate a consumer’s identity for purposes other than granting credit, or for investigating or preventing actual or potential fraud; and companies that wish to make pre-approved offers of credit or insurance to you. To opt out of such pre-approved offers, visit www.optoutprescreen.co <sup>6</sup>The Identity Theft Insurance benefit is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company, under group or blanket policies issued to Equifax, Inc., or its respective affiliates for the benefit of its Members.
