Dear <<Name 1>>:

Nuance Communications, Inc. (“Nuance” or “we”) provides solutions to share radiology documentation among your healthcare providers, including <<Consolidated BE- CE_Name_1>>. We place high value on maintaining the privacy and security of the information we maintain for our customers. This letter is to inform you that a third-party vendor we used was recently the victim of a security incident, which impacted some of your personal information. Importantly, we have no evidence that your information has been subject to fraud as a result of this incident. This letter explains the third-party incident, the measures we have taken in response and the steps you can take.

What Happened? We use software made by a third-party company named Progress Software Corporation (“Progress Software”) called MOVEit Transfer, which is widely used by organizations to securely transfer files. On May 31, 2023, Progress Software told us about a previously unknown vulnerability in their software that allowed an unauthorized third party to take information from the MOVEit Transfer software. Upon being told about Progress Software’s incident, we immediately took steps to secure our systems and launched an investigation. Our analysis of the MOVEit Transfer environment found that the unauthorized third party took data between May 28 and May 29, 2023. On <<Var Data 3 -CE discovery_date>>, Nuance confirmed as part of our investigation that, unfortunately, a limited amount of your personal information within audit logs was affected by the Progress Software incident. After gathering all relevant information, we told << Var Data 2- CE Name 2>> about this incident on <<CM dur - CE Notice Date>>.

What Information Was Involved? The personal information involved included your name and details about radiology studies you received, including a description of the study, date of service, provider and facility name, and study identifiers. It may have included your medical record number. Importantly, it did not involve or include your medical record or radiology images, Social Security number, or any of your financial information.

What Are We Doing? Data privacy and security are among our highest priorities, and we have extensive measures in place to protect information entrusted to us. Upon discovering that Progress Software was experiencing a security incident, we immediately took steps to secure the servers running the MOVEit Transfer application and worked with cybersecurity experts and legal counsel to conduct a comprehensive investigation of the incident and notify affected customers. We also notified law enforcement authorities.

What Can You Do? We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Enclosed with this letter are some steps you can take to protect your information.

For More Information. Your privacy is of utmost importance to us, and we deeply regret that we were impacted by Progress Software’s security incident and any concern it may cause you. If you have questions, please call our dedicated, toll-free call center at 888-988-0380, Monday through Friday between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Central Time, excluding major U.S. holidays.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT IDENTITY THEFT PROTECTION

You should remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing credit card account statements and monitoring your credit report for unauthorized activity.

Credit Reports. Under federal law, you are entitled to one free copy of your credit report every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by going to www.AnnualCreditReport.com or by calling (877) 322-8228. You also may complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form available from the FTC at www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0093-annual-report-request-form.pdf, and mail it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

You may contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies at:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348 www.equifax.com (800) 525-6285	P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 www.experian.com (888) 397-3742	P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016 www.transunion.com (800) 916-8800

Fraud Alert. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies above. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit.

Credit Freezes (for Non-Massachusetts Residents): You may have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Since the instructions for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three major credit reporting companies as indicated above.

You can obtain more information about fraud alerts and credit freezes by contacting the FTC or one of the national credit reporting agencies listed above.

Credit Freezes (for Massachusetts Residents): Massachusetts law gives you the right to place a security freeze on your consumer reports. A security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. Using a security freeze, however, may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may request that a freeze be placed on your credit report by sending a request to a credit reporting agency by certified mail, overnight mail or regular stamped mail to the respective address indicated above.

Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. The following information should be included when requesting a security freeze (documentation for you and your spouse must be submitted when freezing a spouse's credit report): full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; Social Security number; date of birth (month, day and year); current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years; and applicable fee (if any) or incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Department of Motor Vehicles. The request should also include a copy of a government-issued identification card, such as a driver's license, state or military ID card, and a copy of a utility bill, bank or insurance statement. Each copy should be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue (statement dates must be recent). Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report.
