Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>:

Dolly, Inc. (“Dolly”) is writing to inform you of a recent incident that may have impacted your personal information. Dolly takes the privacy and security of all information within its possession very seriously. That is why we are notifying you of the incident, providing you with steps you can take to help protect your personal information, and offering you the opportunity to enroll in complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services.

What Happened. On August 26, 2023, Dolly learned that it had experienced a potential security event and, in response, took immediate steps to secure our network and engage cybersecurity experts to conduct an investigation to determine what happened. Based on that investigation, we learned that an unknown criminal actor acquired certain files from our network, some of which contained individuals’ personal information. We then immediately undertook a comprehensive review of the impacted data to determine precisely what may have been affected and the individuals involved. That process concluded on October 4, 2023 and identified your information as potentially impacted which is the reason for this notification.

What Information Was Involved. The information involved may include your name and your Social Security number.

What We Are Doing. As soon as we discovered the incident, we took the steps described above and implemented measures to enhance our network security and minimize the risk of a similar incident occurring in the future. We are also offering you the ability to enroll in <<12/24>> months of complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services through IDX, a national leader in identity protection services. The IDX services, which are free to you upon enrollment, include a <<12/24>> month subscription for the following: credit monitoring,¹ CyberScan dark web monitoring, fully managed identity recovery services, and $1 million in identity theft insurance coverage. With this protection, IDX will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised.

What You Can Do. You can follow the recommendations on the following page to help protect your personal information. You can also enroll in the IDX identity protection services, which are offered to you at no cost.

Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Personal Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting <http://www.annualcreditreport.com/>, calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax

P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-888-378-4329
www.equifax.com

Experian

P.O. Box 9532
Allen, TX 75013
1-800-831-5614
www.experian.com

TransUnion

P.O. Box 1000
Chester, PA 19016
1-800-916-8800
www.transunion.com

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>.

Security Freeze: You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC, or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state.
