RE: NOTICE OF DATA SECURITY EVENT

Dear Valued Customer:

We are writing to provide you with information regarding a recent third-party data incident which involves the security of some of your personal information. We have no evidence that any of your information has been used to commit financial fraud. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, we want to provide you with information about the incident, explain the services that are being made available to you, and let you know that we continue to take significant measures to protect your information.

What Happened

We were notified that a third-party vendor we work with to provide replacement or updated debit cards, experienced an unsecure transfer of files which exposed access to information associated with your First Commonwealth Bank card. This third-party vendor transfers data using the MOVEit secure file transfer system. Recently the MOVEit system was compromised resulting in a system vulnerability that allowed unauthorized access to the data. This issue is not unique to this third-party vendor, as the MOVEit file transfer system is used by thousands of organizations around the world and a number of them have encountered this. The Bank's systems were not involved in this incident or compromised in any way.

What Information Was Involved?

The information potentially accessible on the MOVEit server may have included your name, address, and/or debit card with expiration date.

What We Are Doing

Upon being informed of the vulnerability, the third-party vendor immediately took actions to mitigate and assess the scope of information potentially compromised, including engaging third-party professionals to assist in the investigation and remediation of the vulnerability. Following their investigation, they discovered on July 24, 2023 that certain files that contain your personal information were accessed and potentially removed from the vendor's network by an unauthorized party on May 29-30, 2023. Our vendor notified us of the discovery and on October 17, 2023, we determined that you were included in the impacted population. The vendor is not aware of any reports of identity fraud or improper use of any information as a direct result of this incident.

A fraud alert tells creditors to contact you personally before they open any new accounts. To place a fraud alert, call any one of the three major credit bureaus at the numbers listed below. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, they will notify the others.

3. Consider Placing a Security Freeze on Your Credit File.

If you are very concerned about becoming a victim of fraud or identity theft, you may request a "Security Freeze" be placed on your credit file at no cost. A security freeze prohibits, with certain specific exceptions, the consumer reporting agencies from releasing your credit report or any information from it without your express authorization. You may place a security freeze on your credit report by sending a request in writing, by mail, to all three nationwide credit reporting companies. To find out more on how to place a security freeze, you can use the following contact information:

Equifax Security Freeze

P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348-5788

TransUnion Security Freeze

P.O. Box 160
Woodlyn, PA 19094
<https://www.transunion.com/credit-freeze>
(888) 909-8872

In order to place the security freeze, you'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

If you do place a security freeze prior to enrolling in the credit monitoring service as described above, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring service. After you sign up for the credit monitoring service, you may refreeze your credit file.

4. Obtaining a Free Credit Report.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free credit report every 12 months from each of the above three major nationwide credit reporting companies. Call 1-877-322-8228 or request your free credit reports online at www.annualcreditreport.com. Once you receive your credit reports, review them for discrepancies. Identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. Verify all information is correct. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting company.

5. Additional Helpful Resources.

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you check your credit reports periodically. Checking your credit report periodically can help you spot problems and address them quickly.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call your local law enforcement agency and file a police report. Be sure to obtain a copy of the police report, as many creditors will want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. You may also file a complaint with the FTC by contacting them on the web at www.ftc.gov/idtheft, by phone at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338), or by mail at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible to law enforcement for their investigations. In addition, you may obtain information from the FTC about fraud alerts and security freezes.
