Dear <<Name 1>>:

We are writing to notify you of a data security incident linked to a vulnerability in third-party vendor software that may have involved some of your information. This notice explains the incident, as well as measures we have taken and steps you can take in response.

On February 16, 2021, we learned that a vulnerability in a third-party software platform – Accellion, Inc.’s File Transfer Appliance (“Accellion FTA”) – may have resulted in unauthorized access to some of our information. El Paso Electric (“EPE”) used the Accellion FTA to transfer large files. After learning of the potential unauthorized access, EPE contacted law enforcement and launched an investigation.

Through our investigation, we learned that unauthorized parties exploited the vulnerability on the Accellion FTA software and gained access to the platform between December 22, 2020 and December 24, 2020. This incident may have allowed the unauthorized parties to access or acquire certain EPE files that had been transferred through the platform.

EPE has worked diligently to identify any files that may have been subject to unauthorized access as a result of the Accellion FTA vulnerability. On March 5, 2021, EPE determined that some of these files may have contained information pertaining to current and former employees, retirees, and beneficiaries, such as yourself. This information may have included your name and Social Security number.

We deeply regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause you, and we are committed to helping you minimize any possible impact. We recommend that you remain vigilant to the possibility of fraud by reviewing your financial account and payment card statements. We are also offering all employees a complimentary one-year membership in Experian’s IdentityWorksSM. This product helps detect possible misuse of your information and provides you with identity protection support focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. IdentityWorks is free and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. For more information on IdentityWorks, including instructions on how to activate your complimentary one-year membership, as well as some additional steps you can take to protect your information, please see the pages that follow this letter.

To help prevent something like this from happening in the future, we have taken the Accellion FTA offline permanently.

If you have any questions, please call our dedicated incident response line at 855-654-0861, Monday through Friday, from 7 am to 7 pm Mountain Time.

Sincerely,

Victor F. Rueda
 Vice President of Human Resources

If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your state. You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Obtain a copy of the police report in case you are asked to provide copies to creditors to correct your records. Contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:

- Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.

You may contact El Paso Electric Company via U.S. mail at P.O. Box 982, El Paso, Texas 79960 or via telephone at 915-543-5970.
