

STRONGER MONTANA AGRICULTURE!

Western Area Livestock and Agriculture Risk Mitigation

This USDA NIFA and FEMA Emergency Management Institute Training is co-hosted by MSU Extension The seminar includes FEMA certified exercises for emergency responders and 6 P.O.S.T. credits.

June 24, 2019

Ag Bldg- Fergus Co Fairgrounds

1000 US Hwy 191

Lewistown, MT 59547

8:30a—4:30p Thursday

AGENDA

8:30am Introductions & Review of Ag Disasters

9:00am What resources do Emergency Managers Need for Ag Disasters (Ben Phillips)

9:30am What can Extension & Ag resources bring to the table? (Jeanne Rankin & Scott Cotton)

10:00am What Disease Issues/Stop Movement Orders Affect (Jeanne Rankin DVM, FADD)

10:30am Using Portable Corrals to Respond to Disasters (Scott Cotton)

11:00am Legal Authorities and Ownership of Livestock During Disaster (Brand Inspector)

11:30am A Review of Handling Livestock Transportation Accidents (Jeanne Rankin -Rolling Cow)

12:00 Lunch and Handling Bee Transportation Accidents

1:15p Livestock Handling Practicum (Scott Cotton and Jeanne Rankin, DVM)

1:45p FEMA Livestock Evacuation Exercise (Scott Cotton & Emergency Managers)

3:30pm Assessing Ag Disaster Damage / Ag Response Forms (Scott Cotton)

3:45 pm Q&A / Discussion and Form Completion

REGISTER at:

<https://lewiston-ag-disaster-training.eventbrite.com>

Supported

Provided By

USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture

Partnering with

*Issued in furtherance of cooperative extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture.
Kelly Crane, Director, UW Extension, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming 82071.*

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING
EXTENSION