

IMPORTANT INFORMATION
PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY

Dear [REDACTED]:

The privacy and security of your personal information is of the utmost importance to HME Specialists, LLC ("HME"). We are writing with important information regarding a recent security incident that may have impacted some of your information. We want to provide you with information about the incident and let you know that we continue to take significant measures to protect your information.

What Happened?

As a result of a phishing incident, an unauthorized party may have obtained access to a limited number of HME employee email accounts between June 24, 2020 and July 14, 2020.

What We Are Doing.

Upon learning of the issue, we commenced an immediate and thorough investigation. As part of our investigation, we engaged external cybersecurity professionals experienced in handling these types of incidents. The investigation worked to identify what personal information, if any, might have been contained in the affected email accounts. After an extensive forensic investigation and manual document review, we discovered on March 11, 2021 that the email accounts that was accessed contained some of your protected health information.

What Information Was Involved?

Based on our comprehensive investigation and document review we discovered that the compromised email accounts contained your information, including your [REDACTED]

What You Can Do.

We have no evidence that any of your information has been misused. However, as a general matter, the following practices can help to protect you from medical identity theft.

- Only share your health insurance cards with your health care providers and other family members who are covered under your insurance plan or who help you with your medical care.

- Review your “explanation of benefits statement” which you receive from your health insurance company. Follow up with your insurance company or care provider for any items you do not recognize. If necessary, contact the care provider on the explanation of benefits statement and ask for copies of medical records from the date of the potential access (noted above) to current date.
- Ask your insurance company for a current year-to-date report of all services paid for you as a beneficiary. Follow up with your insurance company or the care provider for any items you do not recognize.

For More Information.

Please accept our apologies that this incident occurred. We are committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information in our possession and have taken many precautions to safeguard it. We continually evaluate and modify our practices and internal controls to enhance the security and privacy of your personal information.

If you have any further questions regarding this incident, please call our dedicated and confidential toll-free response line that we have set up to respond to questions at [REDACTED]. This response line is staffed with professionals familiar with this incident and knowledgeable on what you can do to protect against misuse of your information.
