

The Kalispell Police Department

Presents:

Successfully Navigating the Pitfalls of a LE Career By Dennis L. Conroy, Ph,D.

Understanding the Impact stress and trauma has on Law Enforcement Officers and their families. Suicide for Law Enforcement is higher than that of In The Line of Duty Deaths annually. Learn the signs and symptoms of our brothers/sisters stress and when to intervene and what to do to help mitigate the risk.

WHERE:

Flathead Valley Community College (Arts/Tech)

777 Grandview Drive

Kalispell, MT 59901

COST

$125.00

WHEN:

April 29th—30th, 2019 from 8:00 am—5:00 pm

For Registration Information Please Contact:

Officer Michelle O'Neil

moneil@kalispell.com or call 406-751-3778

Those in attendance will receive 16 hours of POST credit.

Dennis L. Conroy, Ph.D.

Dr. Dennis Conroy, Licensed Psychologist retired after over 30 years service with the Saint Paul Police Department. During that time he has had with such diverse assignments as Patrol Officer, Patrol Supervisor, Vice/Narcotics Investigator, Director of Professional Development Institute, Director of Field Training Program.

For over 25 years he has taught in an upper division collegiate setting. This experience blends psychology and law enforcement. Courses taught include Adolescent Psychology, Human Behavior in Law Enforcement, Police Stress, Issues in Adolescent Counseling, Qualitative Research, Case Management in the Human Services, Child Development, Peer Counseling in Law Enforcement, Working With People for Police Leadership, Demographic Influences on Policing, The Psychology of Victims, Public Safety Psychology, and Ethics. Seminars include “High Risk Communications”, Anger Management, Traumas of Law Enforcement, and “Responding to Crisis in the Workplace” taught on a national scale.

Dennis L. Conroy, Ph.D.

Licensed Psychologist

2515 White Bear Av. A/8-213

Maplewood, Minnesota 55109

(651) 224-4560