

Notice of Data Breach

Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom Insurance Agency uses an agency management software and service called QQCatalyst, which is provided by Vertafore. Vertafore takes seriously the responsibility to protect your personal information. As such, we are writing to inform you about a configuration error at Vertafore impacting some of your personal information.

What Happened?

On November 30, 2020, Vertafore discovered a configuration error in its insurance agency management product, QQCatalyst. As a result, there was unauthorized access to reports and forms generated using QQCatalyst. Other files uploaded to QQCatalyst, including insurance applications and quotes, were accessible to the public, though we cannot determine whether these files were actually accessed by unauthorized parties. Freedom Insurance Agency learned about this event on 6/8/2021.

Immediately upon becoming aware of the issue, Vertafore fixed the configuration error and secured the potentially affected files. Vertafore has also been investigating the extent to which data may have been impacted and identifying customers and individuals for notification. These investigations take time, and while we have been moving quickly, we have taken time to be sure we're providing accurate information. Vertafore has reported the matter to U.S. federal law enforcement.

What You Can Do.

In addition to taking advantage of the free credit monitoring and identity restoration service, it is always a good idea to remain vigilant against threats of identity theft or fraud. You can do this by regularly

It is also always a good idea to be alert for “phishing” emails or phone calls by someone who acts like they know you or are a company that you may do business with and requests sensitive information over email, such as passwords, Social Security numbers, or financial account information.

More information about protecting against identity theft is attached to this notice.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

To protect against possible fraud, identity theft or other financial loss, you should always remain vigilant, review your account statements and monitor your credit reports. Provided below are the names and contact information for the three major U.S. credit bureaus and additional information about steps you can take to obtain a free credit report and place a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit report. If you believe you are a victim of fraud or identity theft, you can contact your local law enforcement agency, your state's attorney general, or the Federal Trade Commission. Please know that contacting us will not expedite any remediation of suspicious activity.

INFORMATION ON OBTAINING A FREE CREDIT REPORT

U.S. residents are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus. To order your free credit reports, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free at +1 (877) 322-8228.

INFORMATION ON IMPLEMENTING A FRAUD ALERT OR SECURITY FREEZE

You may contact the three major credit bureaus at the addresses below to place a fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert indicates to anyone requesting your credit file that you suspect you are a possible victim of fraud. A fraud alert does not affect your ability to get a loan or credit. Instead, it alerts a business that your personal information might have been compromised and requires that business to verify your identity before issuing you credit. Although this may cause some short delay if you are the one applying for the credit, it might protect against someone else obtaining credit in your name.

A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit, mortgages, employment, housing or other services.

A credit reporting agency may not charge you to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze.

To place a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit report, you must contact the three credit bureaus below:

Equifax: Consumer Fraud Division P.O. Box 740256 Atlanta, GA 30374 +1 (800) 525-6285 www.equifax.com	Experian: Credit Fraud Center P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 +1 (888) 397-3742 www.experian.com	TransUnion: TransUnion LLC P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016-2000 +1 (800) 680-7289 www.transunion.com

To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, the addresses where you have lived over those prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill; and

6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.).

You may also contact the U.S. Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") for further information on fraud alerts, security freezes, and how to protect yourself from identity theft. The FTC can be contacted at 400 7th St. SW, Washington, DC 20024; telephone +1 (877) 382-4357; or www.consumer.gov/idtheft.
