

MONTANA FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, LEWIS & CLARK COUNTY

STATE OF MONTANA,  Plaintiff,  v.  _____,  Defendant.	CASE NO.  ORDER REVOKING BOND AND WARRANT FOR ARREST
---	---

A motion to revoke the defendant's release on bond has been filed in this Court alleging that the defendant has violated the bond conditions on the underlying charge of _____, and the prosecutor has made a verified application setting forth facts or circumstances constituting a breach of the defendant's bond conditions. Specifically, the defendant was ordered on _____, 20____, to participate in the 24/7 Sobriety Program and either report for daily alcohol testing or allow transdermal alcohol monitoring until bond was exonerated or until further order of this Court. Based upon the verified application, this Court has determined that good cause exists to revoke the defendant's release on bond.

THIS COURT HEREBY ORDERS that the defendant's bond is revoked and further orders any Montana peace officer to arrest the defendant and return him or her to the custody of the Lewis & Clark County Detention Center until a hearing can be conducted in accordance with Mont. Code Ann. § 46-9-311.

DATED this ____ day of _____, 20_____.
